TEUTONIC FORCES CONCEDE RUSSIA'S ADVANCE

The Russians are Again Hammering Their Way Toward Lemberg and Their Progress is Conceded by the Teutonic Forces—The Austrians in a Counter Attack Lost Seventeen Hundred Prisoners—Ten Zeppelins Raided England and Reported One of Them Was Destroyed—German Sub Slips Into Arctic and Torpedoed Three Norwegian Ships.

London, Oct. 2.—The successful resumption of the Russian offensive in Galicia drew attention anew to the Eastern war theatre today. Berlin and Vienna concede General Brusiloff gained advantages near Lemberg and the fighting continues. The Austrians made counter attack but Petrograd asserts they were repulsed with the loss of sixteen hundred prisoners.

Paris announces Serbian success in advancing a mile and a quarter north of Kaimakalan.

On the Somme front Paris says only local operations are in progress, although the French took a trench and some prisoners.

On a 12-mile battle front north of the Somme river the French and British charged the Germans time after time yesterday, but were repulsed with heavy losses, the Berlin statement says.

Ten Zeppelins in Raid.

London, Oct. 2.—Ten Zeppelins took part in last night's raid over England. Two of them attempted to attack London. One was driven away and the other was reported last night destroyed. No reports of casualties have as yet been received.

German Sub in Arctic.

BOYS AND GIRLS HAVE GOOD DISPLAY

Girls' Canning Club and Boys' Corn Club Make Annual Display at Commercial Club Rooms.

The annual exhibit of the Girls' Canning Club and the Boys' Corn Club of Brazos county is being held today in the club rooms of the Bryan and Brazos County Commercial Association. The young ladies, who have been under the supervision of Miss Mary Locke, show they have had very fine training and have learned some things that will be of much value to them in curtailing the expense of living in the rural districts. Canned and bottled goods galore are on display and they look just as nice and even nicer than you will go to the grocer's and pay an enormous price for, and these young ladies not only raised the vegetables, the fruits and the many other things they have on display, but canned and bottled them at home with practically no expense. Take for example catsup. You pay 25 and 35 cents a bottle for catsup and these young ladies have bottled from nice, ripe, home-grown tomatoes catsup that is far superior to the factory-made goods and the cost of one pint bottle to them in actual cash will not run over 3 or 4 cents.

County Agent Beason has a very creditable display from the Boys' Corn Club also. There are nine contestants for the first prize and the products they are showing prove that just as fine corn can be raised in Brazos county as in any place in the United States.

In the general exhibit of the girls the following young ladies are entered: Misses Florence Conway, Agnes Conway, Dorothy Broach, Ima Cook, Winnie Mathis, Ruby Walker, Verna Froedel and Katie Walker.

In the display of jellies the following have entries: Misses Ruby Walker, Winnie Mathis, Ima Cook, Dorothy Broach, Florence Conway and Agnes Conway. In the display of catsup: Misses Ima Cook, Winnie Mathis, Agnes Conway and Florence Conway. Dixie relish: Ima Cook and Agnes and Florence Conway and Winnie Mathis. Canned tomatoes in tin: Dorothy Broach, Agnes and Florence Conway and Winnie Mathis.

There are a number of other articles on display, but those mentioned above are the only ones on which a prize is being offered.

As has been announced, the first premium on these displays is a free trip to the Texas State Fair at Dallas. Other premiums are also offered.

The following boys from the Boys' Corn Club have displays: James Ray, Bloody Butcher, Webster Cloud, Strawberry, Sherman Walker, Yellow-Dent; and the following have white corn, each display consisting of ten ears: J. R. White, Ted Cook, Alton Reed, Fountain Reed, Jesse Cloud and J. R. Singleton.

Hundreds of people have visited the displays today and everyone has pronounced it a grand success. The work of judging was taken up this afternoon and later in the day the winners of the prizes will be announced and published in the columns of the Eagle tomorrow.
